

Are you ready for the years to come? Test

Whatever the culture, all opinions agree on one point: our world is undergoing profound change. Ecology, economy, demography, sociology, ideologies: the great tectonic plates of civilisation are colliding and causing tremors that spare no area of human reality.

In the global upheaval of systems and beliefs, are you living in areas at risk? Is the building that houses your being earthquake-proof, or is it in danger of collapsing in the event of a strong tremor?

In other words, are you still enslaved to historical definitions of reality, deriving your sense of existence from the last stubborn bursts of a dying civilisation?

To find out, I propose an aptitude test. It will enable you to assess your degree of preparation for the years to come. Answer the questions, then look at the results at the end of the test. Have fun!

Results

Count the number of responses in A, B, C, D, E, or F, then look at the results below.

If you have a majority of A

You can start to wind up your current affairs, your contract of incarnation on this earth will not be renewed. In the times to come, any prolonged stay would seriously damage your energetic structure. Rest assured: you are already on the waiting list for a high density planet in the vicinity of Betelgeuse, where the living conditions will meet your expectations and will be much more favorable to your development.

If you have a majority of B

Living in dependence and powerlessness has certainly enriched your knowledge. Unfortunately, this way of living has clogged your energetic structure; trapped in your ego, you have lost touch with your spiritual nature. This type of attitude is no longer compatible with the latest update of the planetary system. To avoid unnecessary suffering, or even a hasty departure, give up the identity of victim, even if you think you will lose some advantages. Finally, some good news: the others exist too!

If you have a majority of C

Unless you have a radical awakening, you will not get a renewal of your incarnation contract on this earth. Arrangements are being made for you to join your fellow A's. You are inseparable playmates and you wish above all to continue the game. Rest assured, it is to your advantage: in your present configuration, conflict and duality are indispensable conditions of your existence. A new incarnation on this Earth would be unbearable for your psychic structure.

If you have a majority of D

Deep down, you are looking for peace, you are trying to get out of the vicious circle of duality, you feel the inner impulses that echo the great transformations of the present time. But what a limp! Your daily life is a long series of compromises! Becoming aware is one step in the awakening, acting with integrity is the next. You have already begun your inner mutation; do not wait until the last minute to live the steps: the process will be less violent!

If you have a majority of E

Aware of the current transformations, you have made changes in your life to respond to the new energies, to the challenges that lie ahead. However, in your enthusiasm, you tend to neglect certain historical beliefs that distort your perceptions of yourself and the world. Switch from linear thinking to a holographic approach, stop hesitating, take into account your multiple dimensions and above all, do not take this story so seriously!

If you have a majority of F

Thank you for being here! Any additional explanation is useless, you are clear on the nature and the reason of your presence on this earth. It is also useless to talk to you about progress, stages, evolution, time, joy or suffering... So, just one comment: remember that for some time to come, your words and behaviors, and even your simple presence can be absolutely exasperating, even devastating. But please, keep going!
