Mrs. Odile Crocodil, internationally known medium, welcomed us in priority, despite her particularly busy agenda, being given the number of forecasts many magazines ordered her for the year 1994. Here is what she said:

“Those two, they never miss any opportunity to get together! You can expect the better or the worse, depending on your perspective. From the very beginning, they stood out! They were already responsible for the Big Bang, when they tried to share their inner flamme. Later on, they initiated the life process on Earth: they were passing along, and he declared her his fire. Imagine, with an ocean so filled with methane, azote, ammoniac and hydrogen, a single sparkle was sufficient! Since that time, it didn't stop.

Parthogenesis, then sexual reproduction... they find all the tricks to bring chaos into the well ordered processus of Life. And let's not speak about the anarchy since they enjoy taking on human forms! They kept on with their deliriums and dreams during all ages, always finding new ways to express their inner fire.

The fire of the first Neanderthal...? It was them. Sun and Râ ceremonies, celtic rites, Neron's fantasms, strangenesses born out of the alchimic crucibles: still them! Who gave such ideas to Pierre and Marie Curie? Always them! I'll tell you, those two never give up! However, my old experience of humankind brings me to ask myself if any progress does not come out of this vivid will of the human being pushing him to ever and ever share this fire of Life that Love is. It is worth a little disorder, isn't it? Substantially, this is the declaration of Mr. I.M Lazy, President of the Association of Serious Citizens (ASC). "In this time of crisis, when we see with bewilderment that everything is falling into pieces, these manifestations of joy and of trust in the future appears to be abruptly ill-timed. We have been preparing ourselves for this crisis since quite a long time, enough for giving it all our attention. One should put penalties to any person allowing oneself to invest in the future. One should forbid the exercise of any civic right to all the individuals that laugh and love life. If one let them go ahead, who will work? This is the cause of unemployment: people call for the right to be happy, and it ruins the will to work! This will lead to an incredible turmoil"

It is inadmissible!

More mitigated reaction for Mr. Triluppe Lapilupe, from the Abstentionist Party: "Well, you know, I'm not personally interested, because with a wedding, you can only answer yes or no. By the way, what was the question?"

Exclusif: interview des 2 bears!

The two bears accepted to answer our questions.

Bear Tribune: The whole Bear community was surprised by the rapidity of your decision. how can you explain that?

The 2 bears: Not as fast as you think! You see, any work of art is first of all matured within imagination. Nurished with intention and enthusiasm, it makes its way through the labyrinths of the psyche, until one day it takes on a material form. If the maturation period can be long, its concrete manifestation is often sudden. Then the great miracle happens (which, by the way, does not amaze anybody anymore, that's why the world is so filled with morosity): the imagined objet - or event- leaves the dimensions of spirit to reappear in the space time continuum. For us, it becomes real. But today many have forgotten this magical dimension up to the point of considering it as fancy dreams. Think about the crisis: what would happen if, instead of bemoan in front of this situation, the people was filled with wonder in realizing how the fears so carefully imagined and nurished are reflected in the material world? We would experiment a huge collective laughter! That's for the rapidity.

Bear Tribune: So you have other projects...

The 2 bears: You are right! We have a multi-faceted project which may appear completely utopistic: be happy and make the people happy. But as Buckminster Fuller puts it, "The world has become too dangerous for anything else than utopia." Barbara want to go back to the hotel business. Such a place will allow us to welcome people that look for a heart-based hostelry, and to follow up with our consulting, services workshops and other activities. As you can guess, all these activities will be at the service of imagination and creativity.

Albert Bear, plenipotentiary ambassador of the Great Bear constellation, told us through interdimensional link: "Grumpf!"

Anyway, all that would be worth a special issue of the Bear Tribune!

Bear Tribune: Some words for the conclusion?

The 2 bears: Yes: we would like to thank our respective parents, wherever they are, for having given us life; it had facilitated our meeting to a great extent. Thanks also to our blood and spirit brothers and sisters, and to the friends of everywhere for their warm presence. Thanks as well to Mr. Giacometti: his joyous character gave beauty to this official act. And we should not forget to thank our detractors and other stupid people: these essential reflects allows us to strenghten our will and improve our works of art. Let's not forget Ulrich the Dervich, Trilulle the Libellule, Yodlo the Rhino, and all the friends of the Kingdom of imagination!

Other reactions around the world:

Contacted in the Paradise, Mr. Teilhard de Chardin told us: "We don't need a tête à tête or a body to body, but a heart to heart; If the synthesis of spirit and heart has to be fully accomplished (and this is the only possible definition of progress), it has to be done , in the last resort, through the meeting, from center to center, of human units, which can only be accomplished in the mutual and universal love."

From his jungle, Dr. Livingstone added: "I will go anywhere, as long as it is forward."

And Mr. Runbeck declared: "Happyness is not the end of a journey, but a way of travelling."

Mr. Kettering concluded: "I'm interested in the future, because this is where I will spend the rest of my life."
